We invite children, teachers, and parents to write to Scholastic to demand they publish and distribute children’s books and catalogs that reflect and affirm the identity, history, and lives of ALL children in our schools.

“We looked at your magazines and we saw mostly white people and animals. You’re leaving people hangin’!”
— FIRST GRADE CLASS, WASHINGTON, D.C.

Write to Scholastic bit.ly/stepupscholastic

Organized by American Indians in Children’s Literature, Ferguson Response Network, and Teaching for Change